Qatar National Day

On December 4, 2024, The Qatar Cultural Attaché Office participated in festive activities to celebrate Qatar National Day in collaboration with the Embassy of Qatar in Washington, D.C.

The celebration brought together members of the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) countries, prominent government officials, and distinguished guests. The event was held at the prestigious National Building Museum, highlighting the rich cultural heritage and national pride of Qatar.

The gathering fostered a sense of unity and camaraderie, showcasing the strong ties between Qatar and the international community.

Participation in Winter National 2024 Festival

On December 5, 2024, The Qatar Cultural Attaché Office, in collaboration with the Embassy of Qatar in Washington, D.C., actively participated in the Winter National 2024 Festival.

This vibrant event featured participation from over sixty embassies. Each showcased its respective nation through captivating displays of visual art, authentic cuisine, handcrafted items, and informative insights into travel and tourism.

The Qatar Cultural Attaché Office contributed to the festival by highlighting Qatar's rich cultural heritage. This offered attendees a unique opportunity to explore the nation's traditions and global significance, serving as an excellent platform for cultural exchange and international engagement.

Reminders for Students:

- Please remember to submit your end of term transcript so the QCAO Academic Team can record your Fall 2024 term performance.
- Please share your Spring 2025 course schedules with the QCAO Academic Team as soon as possible.
- Remember to request a waiver for the University Health Insurance for the Spring 2025 term in order to avoid any out-of-pocket responsibility to cover non-mandatory fees.
